

St Paul of the Cross Church Pastoral Council Biographies 2018-2019

Hello! My name is Elisabeth Korsmeier McCormick. Originally, I am from the town of Worms in Germany. My work for Michael Becker Fine Violins in Park Ridge brought me to the United States from 2005-2007 and once again in 2014 when I became a permanent resident and again a parishioner of St. Paul of the Cross. I joined Bible Study at St. Paul in 2014 and through dear friends from the Bible Study group, I was introduced to the 7:30am usher group. This is where I met my husband, Joe McCormick, who has been part of SPC his entire life and has been an usher ever since he was 18. We now enjoy Bible Study at SPC together and also offer an hour of adoration on Monday evenings. I also am very happy to help out with donuts on Sundays. During the past year, I have been very honored to be a member of the Pastoral Council.

Angela Marogil and her husband, Jeffrey, have been a member of St. Paul of the Cross for over 11 years. They reside in Park Ridge and have 2 children: Matthew 15, a St. Paul of the Cross School alumni, and Lauren 12, currently attending St. Paul of the Cross School. She is a member of St. Mary's Guild and has served on many committees within St. Paul of the Cross School. Angela currently works part-time teaching the Nuclear Medicine program at Triton College. She feels very grateful to be given the opportunity to serve as a Parish Council member, and is looking forward to continuing service to our Parish.

Danielle Hartung and her husband, Eric, have been parishioners of St. Paul of the Cross since 2005. They have three children, Jack (8th grade), Charlotte (6th grade), and Catherine (3rd grade). Danielle worked for ten years as a pediatric genetic counselor at Lurie Children's Hospital and is now home full time. She volunteers as a court appointed special advocate for CASA of Cook County and does animal therapy at school programs, through Rainbow Animal Assisted Therapies, along with her yellow lab, Hazel. Danielle has been a member of the St. Anne Guild at SPC for close to ten years, and served as the Membership Chair of the AOW from 2015-2017.

I am Dan Hogan and have been a member of St. Paul of the Cross for over 40 years and am in my sixth year as chairman of the Parish Pastoral Council. My wife Mary, (a lifelong Park Ridgean and parishioner for 52 years) and I were married in St. Paul of the Cross in 1978 and reside in Park Ridge. Our children, Katie and Dan Jr., received their Sacraments here and their Catholic Education through our parish's CCD program. My service to St. Paul of the Cross includes being an Usher, Eucharistic Minister and Lector, co-chair of the Capital Campaign, and with Mary as Ministers of Pre-Cana, members of the Centennial Steering Committee and chairs of the Centennial Closing Reception Committee. I am a founding member of the current Men's Club. I have been active in numerous service, community and school organizations, serving as president or chairman of many, including the Rotary Club of Park Ridge. I have maintained an active dental practice in Park Ridge since 1979 and am enjoy membership in many professional organizations.

Karen Maloney and her husband, Chuck, have been parishioners for 15 years. They have been blessed with five children, two of which currently attend and three that are graduates of St. Paul of the Cross School. Karen is a physical therapist who works part time at Athletico. She is a member of St. Mary's Guild, Respect Life Group, and Vocation Ministry here at St. Paul of the Cross. The Maloneys enjoy the family atmosphere here in the parish with the Holy Family Chapel. Karen is the Secretary of the Parish Council and looks forward to continuing service to our Parish.

Chris Poindexter and his family have been parishioners for over 12 years. Chris has served on the Parish Council for several years and represents St Paul of the Cross at the monthly Deanery Meetings. Chris is a past President of the Men's Club and has been on several ad hoc committees at SPC including co-chairing the kick-off party for the "To Teach Who Christ Is" campaign as well as serving on our Centennial Celebration Committee. His wife Melissa is a member of St Mary's Guild and has been a room mom several years as his children attend the school. Their children are involved in the Parish as well. Grayson was an Alter Server, Beatrice currently is an Alter Server, sings in the youth Choir and volunteers at Vacation Bible School. Their youngest, Christian, has sung in the Children's Choir and Father Britto thinks he's going to be a priest.

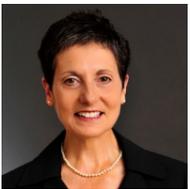

My name is Patrick Coyle and I have been a member of St. Paul of the Cross since 1994. My wife, Jodi and I have 5 children that have all attended St. Paul of the Cross school with our last graduating this year. I am a local general contractor and builder and work mainly in Park Ridge and the Northwest side. This will be my fourth year on the Parish Council and I assist in the capital projects at St. Paul. I am a member of St. Paul of the Cross Men's club and coach for the school soccer and basketball programs.

My name is Lisanne Roth and I am honored to be serving my 8th year on the Parish Council. Having received all of my sacraments at St. Paul, as well as attending St. Paul of the Cross school, I feel blessed to be able to give back to my parish, which has been an integral part of my faith formation. In addition to the Council, I am a Eucharistic Minister, a committed weekly Adorer in the Adoration Chapel since 2006, and sang with the Holy Family Chapel Choir for 7 years. My husband Erik and I have 3 children: Erika 22, Brandon 20, and Collette 16.

My name is Julie Limperis. My husband Tom and I have been members of St. Paul of the Cross Parish for 30 years. We have one daughter and two grandchildren. We were in the restaurant business for the past 32 years and have recently retired. I am happy to be a member of the Parish Council and look forward to working with other council members to enrich all aspects of Catholic Education at St. Paul of the Cross, such as the Religious Education Program, adult education programs and the RCIA program. In my opinion, St. Paul of the Cross is a vibrant, spiritual parish and it is an honor to serve in any capacity.

I am Patti Nowak and my husband, Bob, and I have been St. Paul parishioners for 28 years. I serve our parish as a Lector and Eucharistic Minister. I have served our parish as President of the AOW, Co-Chair of the Centennial Celebration and Co-Chair of our Capital Campaign and also served our Archdiocese as Co-Chair for Catholic Charities Legal Lifelines. I am an attorney and nurse, retired from law firm practice and currently manage a legal program at Loyola University Medical Center.

Hello! My name is Michelle Jareczek and my family and I have been parishioners at St. Paul of the Cross since 2001. My husband Greg and I moved to Park Ridge from Chicago shortly after our first son was born and here we are 18 years later! We are the proud parents of Nathan (18, Senior at Maine South), Samantha (16, Sophomore at Maine South) and AJ (10, 4th Grade at Carpenter). Our time at St. Paul has been blessed having celebrated Baptisms, First Communion and Confirmations as well as my time as a catechist in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. Being a member of Parish Council for the past three years, I have been able to learn more about the wonderful ministries offered to our Faith Community and continue to marvel at all that our parish offers. Beyond my role as Mom and Council Member, I work as a Human Resource Consultant with Ferrara Candy Company. I enjoy running, reading and traveling and am known to sing every now and then at Mass in the Holy Family Chapel. I am honored to serve our Parish on the Council and look forward to my continued faith journey here at St. Paul of the Cross!

My name is John Humm. My wife Susan and I have been parishioners of St. Paul of the Cross for 37 years. During this time we raised 4 children and now have 12 grandkids. I have been active in St. Paul as a member of the Stewardship committee, Eucharistic Minister, Minister of Care, and a member of the Collection Counters. During my professional career I was in banking for 18 years, followed by 18 years in a private technical firm as CFO. Within the community. I was an elected City Treasurer and also a member of various study committees and Scouting organizations.

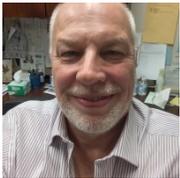

Steve Bachert and his wife, Caroline, have been parishioners of St. Paul of the Cross since they moved to Park Ridge in 1998. They have five children, Brian (SPC '12, currently at Ohio State), Lauren (SPC '14 currently at Univ. of Dayton), Katie (SPC '16 currently at Loyola Academy), Emily (SPC '18, currently at Loyola Academy) and Tommy (SPC Class of 2020). Steve is the Chief Commercial Officer for FourKites, a Chicago-based software company. Steve has volunteered on the Parish Council for five years. He has also coached every sport SPC offers, served on the Athletic Board, and has been on the SPC Men's Club Board for over 8 years. Caroline has coached cheerleading, been a room Mom multiple years, and has volunteered during numerous school-sponsored events. Steve, Carol and their children are grateful for their experiences at St. Paul of the Cross and the community it has allowed for them to serve.

Siobhán Haugh and her husband Joe joined the parish when they moved to Park Ridge ten years ago. Siobhán has a master's degree in social work and practiced law in Chicago before deciding to stay home with their three boys who all attend SPC school. In addition to serving on Parish Council since 2015, Siobhán is currently president of the School Board and serves on the Athletic Board as well.

Joe Micucci and his wife, Mary Beth, have been members of St. Paul of the Cross since 1998. They have three children, Brian (2015 SPC graduate), Jack (2018 SPC graduate) and Grace (class of 2023). Professionally, Joe has spent his career working in Public Relations and Corporate Communications for Chicago-area Fortune 500 companies. In addition to serving on the Parish Council, Joe volunteers at the Parish Vegetable Garden.

My name is Stephen Bozek and my wife Vera, and I have been parishioners at St. Paul for 27 years. We have raised 3 daughters in Park Ridge and are blessed to be a part of this vibrant faith community. I am honored to be a member of the Parish Council for the past 2 years. Over the years we have been involved in the development of the Adoration Chapel, CCD program, Women's Guild, Men's Club and I continue to usher in the Holy Family Chapel. I am a physician and previous chairman of the department of pathology at Resurrection Medical Center and continue as a staff pathologist.
