Letters from a Pastor to his People

Dear Parishioners,

The last karaoke song I performed (no, it wasn't last week...it was back in college, if I recall correctly) was "Cheeseburger in Paradise" by Jimmy Buffett. It's among my long list of most embarrassing moments. I remember in particular trying to get the crowd going during the part of the song where he chants:

"I like mine with lettuce and tomato // Heinz 57 and french fried potatoes // Big kosher pickle and a cold draft beer // Well, good God almighty which way do I steer..."

When I was praying in the Adoration Chapel with this Sunday's Gospel this song kept popping into my head. I took it as a sign from the Holy Spirit that I had to write about it.

First of all, the song is fun. There's something easy and light about it. Sometimes we can make the Eucharist very hard and burdensome. It can be the mental gymnastics we play trying to figure out the Real Presence. Is this really Jesus here? If so, then why don't I feel anything? It can be the argumentation we get into with others and other denominations who don't believe in the Real Presence. It can be the anguish we feel about whether or not to receive communion because we haven't gone to confession. Receive on the hand or receive on the tongue? Why can't non-Catholics receive communion? And on and on with issues around the Eucharist. The song in our head becomes some intense dirge. Now, I'm not saying treat communion haphazardly or don't care, but we should try to ease up and feel some joy around the Body of Christ. Our Lord is the Bread of Life, not the Bread of Death.

Second of all, with the song, the lyrics can be viewed spiritually, if you choose (Jimmy Buffett was raised Catholic). Replace "Cheeseburger" with "Eucharist" and now we've got ourselves a communion hymn. I won't go through all the lyrics, but just the refrain:

*Cheeseburger in paradise
Heaven on Earth with an onion slice
Not too particular, not too precise
I'm just a cheeseburger in paradise*

Keep it simple when you go to Mass and receive communion. Don't try to have it all figured out in your head and don't let communion be a point of contention. Focus on Jesus who is giving himself to you and the beautiful love he wants to pour into your heart. And I pray Jimmy Buffett, God rest his soul, is enjoying not a cheeseburger, but Eucharist in Paradise.

As I mentioned in last week's bulletin, we were blessed to have Cardinal Cupich at our parish, along with members of the Archdiocese and several other parishes, for the capital campaign launch event on Wednesday, August 14th (see pictures of the event below). A special thank you to our parish's tri-chairs for the campaign who helped organize the event: Patti Nowak, Tony and Frank Russo, and Greg and Emily Gleason. Also a special thank you to Leni Duffy, the head of our Social Services Ministry, for helping with the event as well. We welcomed over 200 people for a lovely evening with food and drinks. The Cardinal spoke about the needs of the Church and why Chicago needs this campaign at this point in time. As I've mentioned before, the funds we raise at St. Paul of the Cross will go to support the needs of the Church as well as our local needs, in particular creating more meeting space for our many ministries and bringing our spirituality of the cross outside of our actual church building in the form of outdoor Stations of the Cross. I've reached out to many of you already about making a donation—thank you to those who have very generously responded—and I'll do my best to reach out to as many as possible in the upcoming month or so.

Congratulations to our faculty, students, and parents on a successful first week of school. We are excited to see everyone back and our campus humming once again with the smiling faces of our children.

Tomorrow, Monday, August 26th at 7:30pm is the Candlelight Rosary. And a reminder that our parish picnic will be Sunday, September 8th following the noon Mass. We'll have food in the gym, an ice cream truck in the parking lot, and some light entertainment (not me doing karaoke).

Enjoy the rest of these beautiful summer days.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. James Wallace

Community Reflections

For where there are two or three gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. -Matthew 18:20

One thing I've noticed over the years is how Catholics can have the propensity to privatize the practice of faith. We may assemble for the Holy Mass but then every other element or practice of faith in our spiritual endeavors is solitary. In my experience having spent seven years in Seminary training between St. Josephs college seminary and Mundelein, prayer in community was celebrated in all its richness. We held each other accountable and supported each other; shared ideas and feedback and inspired each other. I felt it and would reflect warmly on the reality that without the support of my brother seminarians I would not have built the foundation in prayer which has helped me in my priestly ministry.

So, what I am exhorting you to consider today is to have conversations with those around you about, prayer, scripture, or where you're at in your spiritual life. We have our men's, women's, and bible study groups starting up in the next few weeks. That is a wise way to open a dialogue and learn from each other and the experts who provide content as food for thought. Beyond that, ask questions. How do you pray? How do you incorporate scripture in your spiritual practices? Where do you notice God working in your life? How do you deal with distraction in prayer? Curiosity and listening are great skills to learn from each other and share wisdom. When we do this, we embrace the desire of Christ to see people gather in his name so he can bless them and that we may be united as he is with the Father.

Father Nick Cavallari

MOTHER TERESA OF CALCUTTA

"Perpetual adoration is the most beautiful thing you could ever think of doing. ... Imagine for a moment that we are living in Jesus' time and He has invited us to visit with Him and spend some quiet time getting to know Him better. Being aware who He was, we would be humbled and honored by such an invitation. The good news is that Jesus is here with us today — body, blood, soul and divinity — in the Holy Eucharist. Although Jesus comes to us under the appearance of bread and wine, his presence is as real to us now as He was flesh-and-blood-real to his disciples when he walked this earth. He can perform miracles, heal us, teach us and love us. We can talk to him and he can speak to us."

"Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to that Adoration."

She summarized, "The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time that you will spend on earth."

Capital Campaign

On August 14, 2024, Fr. James and St. Paul of the Cross hosted Cardinal Cupich for the Archdiocese Generation to Generation Answer the Call Capital Campaign Launch Event.

SPC opened its doors to welcome more than 200 guests not only from SPC, but also, St. Edward, St. John Vianney, St. Peter Damian, St. Theresa and St. Juliana parishes. Guests were invited to tour our SPC campus with visits to the Upper Church, Holy Family Chapel, Food Pantry, Parish Garden and Adoration Chapel. Student volunteers guided guests and answered questions.

Fr. James welcomed guests, offered an opening prayer and introduced Cardinal Cupich who spoke about the Campaign and his commitment to the Archdiocese. The Cardinal also welcomed an open Question & Answer session and was candid in his responses.

Our parish goal is $2.705 million and when reached, one half of the funds will be applied to a new parish meeting space and outside Stations of the Cross. Overall, the Archdiocese will apply the raised pledges to the priests pension/healthcare fund, student scholarships for Catholic education, and overall assistance to those in need in the Archdiocese.

If you have not already “Answered the Call”, please pledge your commitment with your treasure, and especially your prayers.

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom shows how Jesus fulfills God's promises to Israel and establishes his kingdom on earth. Through references to the Old Testament promises of God to his people and the messages God sent them through the prophets, Matthew provides the key to understanding the rest of the New Testament and Christ as the fulfillment of God's plan.

Jeff Cavins explains how Jesus is challenging and empowering us to achieve a new level of holiness and how, to live it, we must be thoroughly immersed in the kingdom of heaven on earth, the Church.

“Once you start learning, he makes you hunger for more. Jeff pulls everything you need to know out of the Bible, and it all starts to make sense like it never did before.”

—Margaret T.

PLANNED GIVING

Please consider making a gift from your individual retirement plan (IRA) that benefits you and our parish. A qualified charitable distribution (QCD) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. There are three main benefits of giving with a QCD:

1. If you are 73 years old or older, the amount you transfer can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution.
2. The amount transferred directly to charity does not generate taxable income, which may reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.
3. Your gift will be immediately used, allowing you to see the impact of your gift now.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Paul of the Cross Parish, please contact Deacon Greg Vogt, Philanthropy Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312-995-0686 or gvogt@archchicago.org.

Student Volunteers Support SPC

Our St. Paul of the Cross School students, Catechesis students and SPC alumni high school students provide a youth-filled backbone of volunteer support for our parish ministries and special events.

Most recently, twenty nine eighth grade and SPC alumni high school students volunteered for the Archdiocese Capital Campaign Launch Event with Cardinal Cupich held on Wednesday, August 14, 2024. SPC hosted six parishes and guests were guided into the parking lot by our high school students and guided on a campus tour by our 8th grade school and Catechesis students as well as SPC alumni.

Student volunteers help in our Parish Garden, Food Pantry, Altar Servers, Lectors and Eucharistic Ministry as well as other parish ministries and special events. We are truly a blessed faith family! Many thanks to our students!

Yours truly,
Patti Nowak
